Transitional housing program that serves individuals recently released from incarceration. Our ultimate goal is for those we serve to remain free from incarceration by becoming self-sufficient, productive members of society. It is our family-oriented, holistic approach that makes the Dismas model unique. From the moment a new resident walks through the door until the day they leave, Dismas is home to our residents - they are family forever.

Our residents are placed in specially selected homes that are preapproved for Registered Sex Offenders. These residences comply with Florida Department of Law Enforcement guidelines and meet the criteria for sex offender regulations. Residents are monitored on a regular basis by the sheriffs department and FDLE, and may be visited several times a week by a probation officer if we have a client in residence that is from the state of Florida on probation.
