The Union Mission Mens Shelter provides service to the homeless and hurting every hour of the day, year-round. It provides between 150 and 200 meals per day, and it has a maximum lodging capacity of 76. The men who come to the shelter do so knowing their physical needs will be met; the staff and chaplains of the shelter, while meeting these physical needs, also tend to the spiritual needs in a practical way.

The Kanawha Valley Fellowship Home is a West Virginia non-profit organization, supporting men who are serious about their recovery from alcohol and substance abuse who need a chance to build independent living skills in a structured residential environment. The Kanawha Valley Fellowship Home offers an environment with personal security and the opportunity to begin a new life by breaking destructive patterns of behavior associated with alcoholism and addiction. The home has fifteen individual bedrooms and eight and one half bathrooms. Our programs are structured and include outside recovery meetings, weekly in house meetings of "Recovery Steps", and a group session with a certified addiction counselor.
