Summit House a residential alternative to prison program for mothers convicted of a nonviolent crime and their minor children, is a nonprofit that serves all 100 North Carolina counties and saves state tax payers over $1million net annually. With locations in the Triangle*, Piedmont, and Charlotte, Summit House empowers convicted mothers to break the generational cycle of poverty, violence, and substance abuse that is their history, and to create a new life for themselves and their children.

Summit House strives to keep families together by maximizing healthy bonding between mothers and children. The organization is committed to working with women who have the desire and dedication to change their lives through counseling, life and job skills training, and substance abuse counseling, rather than sit out a prison sentence
