The Bard Prison Initiative (BPI) creates the opportunity for incarcerated men and women to earn a Bard College associate or bachelor degree while serving their sentences in six prisons across New York State. The academic standards and workload are rigorous, based on an unusual mix of attention to developmental skills and ambitious college study. The rate of post-release employment among the program participants is high and recidivism is stunningly low. By challenging incarcerated men and women with a liberal education, BPI works to redefine the relationship between educational opportunity and criminal justice.

We provide travel assistance to nonresidents who find themselves stranded, in crisis situations, in the Phoenix area. Through an intake process, our volunteers ensure that clients have housing or jobs available before they are sent home. We believe that being with family or friends is always better than sleeping on the streets.
