We are committed to treating each client as an individual, and to understanding and treating the cause of your problems (getting to the root) and not just masking your symptoms. We have found that many perplexing and persistent health issues have more than one cause, and that all factors must be addressed to achieve long-lasting, cost-effective treatment success. We adjust what we do to meet your needs.

We’ve never found one approach good for everything, or even every case of headache, back pain, or depression. By choosing from and weaving together diverse treatment methods, we can give you the greatest opportunity for healing.

HOPE is a drop-in day shelter in Denver, Colorado that provides a safe, welcoming space for people who are experiencing homelessness and are living with HIV. HOPE seeks to create a place where community is fostered, there is space to grow, and health is a priority. Clients can access a number of important services at HOPE: fresh and nutritious meals thanks to a partnership with Project Angel Heart, medication assistance, connection with case management, and clients are welcome to use a locker to store personal belongings (limited space is available). Additionally, free laundry services can be used once a week and clients can have access to a phone and computer. HOPE is located in Denver's Capitol Hill neighborhood and is open Monday through Friday 8am - 3pm. Clients will be permitted to stay up to an hour per day. Laundry service will also resume at this time.

New Genesis provides housing, food and social services to men, women and their families striving to become self-sufficient. Our blueprint for achieving this includes sobriety, stable employment and savings. New Genesis requires residents to work, pay program fees, participate in the upkeep of the facilities, strive for financial independence, contribute to the communities and neighborhoods they live and remain drug and alcohol free. This proves to be highly effective in ultimately breaking the cycle of homelessness. Sobriety, employment, and financial savings are the three main objectives during their stay. Successful graduates re-enter the community with newfound social skills, increased employment opportunities, and an appetite for independent living.

VA for Vets was created to provide our Nation's Veterans with the tools necessary to translate their military skills to civilian skills, take career assessments, build their resumes, consult with coaches and conduct job searches. They are also able to tap into a wealth of information on reintegrating into the civilian workforce. All of these tools and support services are provided at no cost to our heroes.
