Re-entry Services for Returning Citizens is a multi-faceted program that supports people released from prison and returning citizens as they transition back into the community. Re-entry Services connect returning citizens to needed supportive assistance and helps them successfully adjust to living back in their community. All of the core components are designed to provide transitioning individuals with job knowledge and experience, a support system, and a stable life.

Provides services and advocacy for returning citizens. Our strategy seeks to improve conditions for our clients by reducing and eliminating the gap between release from incarceration and employment, allowing for optimal reintegration into society. Since 2017, we have developed four different programs for working with our reentry community: Employment assistance, Legal advocacy and services, and Expunging and Sealing criminal records.

Transforming Re-entry Services works to create an equitable future for re-entry communities.

Founded and incorporated by black women and incarcerated individuals, we combine services, advocacy, and research to fill in the gaps in the systems, restore families, and build economic and political power.
