Incarcerated & Recently
Released Veterans Guidebook and Resource

Forward

This guidebook is a tool for Veterans incarcerated or newly released and their families who wish access to services to support a new and better way of life. Be aware, laws do vary from state to state; therefore check your state laws and regulations against this guide. Other state guidebooks are available on the web at www.va.gov/homeless/reentry_guides.asp.

This resource guidebook was developed using many resources. We would like to acknowledge: 1) the National Coalition for Homeless Veterans which provided basic concepts and core information for this guide through its “Planning for Your Release” guide funded by the U.S. Department of Labor; 2) the Veterans Incarcerated Workgroup of Walla Walla, Washington, for the concept of state-specific information in their original “Guidebook for Incarcerated Veterans” and for allowing the use of its guide as a template for this publication; 3) Vietnam Veterans of America, Inc. for developing the first incarcerated veterans guidebook, which has inspired and informed subsequent efforts; and 4) any public domain and agency resources included in the guidebook.

Agency staff names and addresses, phone numbers and website addresses change. If you attempt to contact one of the resources in this guidebook and it is not current, do your best to obtain the current information through phone information or a web search.

USING THIS GUIDEBOOK

This guide is for you to use to plan for your release and to keep as a reference after your release. It includes addresses, phone numbers, and web sites that you can use to find out about programs and other assistance after your release. You may want to ask a friend or family member to help you find the information you need if you don't have a phone or internet access.

Keep in mind that this guide does not include all of the services available. What is available in one area may be different from what is available in another, so be sure to check with local resources to learn about services in your area.

While you are in prison, find out which unit in your facility can help you plan for your release (often the education or transfer unit). Classes may be offered so you can work on skill development and prepare for life after release. You don't want to risk homelessness once you are released, so take advantage of the opportunities available to you now.

Begin thinking about what specifically you will need upon release. Ask yourself these kinds of questions: Will I need housing? I will need to find a job? Will I need medical, substance abuse treatment, or mental health care? Do I need to learn a job skill? Do I have any other legal issues? Do I have unpaid debts? Do I qualify for any public assistance or benefits, such as Supplemental Security Income (SSI)?

Make a list of your needs. Remember that this is just a tool to help you get organized.

A sample list might look like this: Check all that apply to your situation.

- I need a place to live.
- I need a job.
- I need clothing to wear to work.
- I need to find out what benefits I can get as a veteran.
- I want to get addictions treatment.
- I owe child support.

Think about your list as you read through this guide. Who do you think can help you with each of your needs? Is there one organization that may be able to work with you on many different things, or do you need to contact several agencies? Can you do many of these tasks yourself? Keep track of the steps you take, including the dates and names of people you contact for information or assistance. Although this guide provides national and state addresses for many organizations, we recommend you check your phone book for local, county, and state agencies that know what help is available in your area.

When writing a letter to request information, be clear. Keep your letter short, to the point, and write legibly. Include the following information:

- Your name and contact information.
- A brief statement about your current situation.
- Your specific request.
- What you have done so far (Example: I have written to _____ organization and they suggested I contact you).
- And let the organization know of any restrictions for mailings (Example: Mail with staples or paper clips will not be accepted by my prison facility).

When contacting an agency for help by mail, email or phone, be direct and polite in order to get results. Ask questions if information is not clear to you. Remember that many organizations are staffed by volunteers who are eager to help, but may not have the answers you are looking for. If someone cannot help you, ask who can help you. They may not know what restrictions you are under while incarcerated, such as lack of easy access to the phone and no access to the computer or the internet.

The internet can also be helpful to find information about VA benefits and community resources in your area. This guide includes web addresses, when available. If computer access is not available at your facility, you can visit the public library after release. Computer access may also be provided at WorkSource and WorkSource Affiliate sites, WorkForce Development Council member locations, and Employment Security Department Offices (referred to as Job Service Centers or Unemployment Offices).

Are You A Veteran?

Character of Discharge

Receiving a discharge that is not HONORABLE, does not prohibit you from receiving Veteran benefits, yet it may limit the type of benefits or extent of benefits you are eligible to receive. Veterans who received a less than Honorable discharge may be able to apply for an upgrade (covered on page 6 in this guidebook). Below are excerpts from the 2012 Federal Benefits for Veterans, Dependents and Survivors concerning Veteran eligibility for benefits.

General Eligibility

“Eligibility for most VA benefits is based upon discharge from active military service under other than dishonorable conditions. Active service means full-time service, other than active duty for training, as a member of the Army, Navy, Air Force, Marine Corps, Coast Guard, or as a commissioned officer of the Public Health Service, Environmental Science Services Administration or National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration, or its predecessor, the Coast and Geodetic Survey. Generally, men and women veterans with similar service may be entitled to the same VA benefits.

Dishonorable and bad conduct discharges issued by general courts-martial may bar VA benefits. Veterans in prison and parolees must contact a VA regional office to determine eligibility. VA benefits will not be provided to any veteran or dependent wanted for an outstanding felony warrant.”

VA Health Care Benefits - Basic Eligibility

“A person who served in the active military, naval, or air service and who was discharged or released under conditions other than dishonorable may qualify for VA health care benefits. Reservists and National Guard members may also qualify for VA health care benefits if they were called to active duty (other than for training only) by a Federal order and completed the full period for which they were called or ordered to active duty.

Minimum Duty Requirements: Veterans who enlisted after Sept. 7, 1980, or who entered active duty after Oct. 16, 1981, must have served 24 continuous months or the full period for which they were called to active duty in order to be eligible. This minimum duty requirement may not apply to Veterans discharged for hardship, early out or a disability incurred or aggravated in the line of duty.”

Those who are unsure of their Veteran status should apply and have an eligibility clerk review their status and eligibility for services and benefits. This can be done by making an application for Veteran benefits/services or contacting the regional office at 1-800-827-1000.

Military Records

Records concerning your service may be very important to have in your possession. At a minimum, all Veterans should have a copy of their separation documents. This usually means a copy of a DD214. There are many copies of the DD214 given to a discharging Veteran, and the one that the VA looks for in most situations while filing for benefits is the 'DD214/Member 4 copy.' This is the copy of the separation paperwork (DD214) that shows the Character of Service, such as if you received an HONORABLE discharge or a lower level of discharge, such as a GENERAL Discharge. It is also known as an UNDELETED copy of the DD214. A 'Member 2 copy' also shows the character of discharge. A DD215 is also accepted and is a corrected or amended discharge document and is issued when the original DD214 had incorrect or missing information. Veterans with service during WWII may have a World War II WD form. The most important information on these documents are the Character of Discharge and the dates you served on active duty.

Requesting Records

A copy of your military records can be requested using either the Standard Form 180 (SF180), or via on-line at www.archives.gov/veterans/military-service-records/index.html. Only the Veteran can make this request, or NOK if the Veteran is deceased. Records over 62 years old are public records. See Appendix for a copy of the SF180 form.

The National Personnel Records Center (NPRC) receives close to 5000 requests for records a day. Nearly half of all the requests are for only a copy of separation documents, which is the required document for Veteran benefits. A small number of requests ask for a copy of a full personnel file.

The National Archives has a standard procedure concerning requests for entire files. NPRC only provides copies of key documents, rather than a copy of every document in a personnel and/or medical file. Personnel documents are not normally needed for benefit requests, therefore, by sending only the key documents, such as only the discharge documents, requests can be responded to between 6 days to a few weeks. Exceptions to this procedure are files more than 62 years old, US Marine Corps files, all certified legal cases, and all requests from the Department of Veterans Affairs. In these instances, all documents are provided.

The key documents provided from the Personnel File and/or Medical Record, may contain a copy of separation documents and the following information, if it is in the file:

- Military Services Dates
- Character of Service
- Promotions and Reductions
- Duty Stations and Assignments
- Foreign or Sea Service
- Military Schooling and Training
- Awards and Letters of Commendation
- Disciplinary Actions
- Lost Time
- Enlistments Contracts
- Entry and Separation Physical Exams
- Immunizations
- Dental Examinations
- Clinical Summaries/Cover Sheets

If, after receiving an extract of a file, a requester submits a follow-up request for additional information or documents, NPRC will automatically send copies of all the other documents in the file. Follow instructions in any letter they NPRC sends to you to obtain other records.

The 1973 Fire at the National Personnel Records Center

Often a Veteran reports they are unable to verify their service because of the 1973 Fire at the NPRC. Since this fire, there has been a great effort toward the rebuilding of information from the files that were affected by this tragic loss of information. NPRC has reconstructed information from various other resources to provide basic information lost in this fire, and through that effort, verification of service can still be made for many Veterans' service information, even if the information is not complete.

 "Some of the most important records used to supplement damage or lost files included: Veterans Administration (VA) claims files, individual state records, Multiple Name Pay Vouchers (MPV) from the Adjutant General's Office, Selective Service System (SSS) registration records, pay records from the Government Accounting Office (GAO), as well as medical records from military hospitals, entrance and separation x-rays and organizational records."*

Branch	Personnel and Period Affected	Estimated Loss
Army	Personnel discharged November 1, 1912 to January 1, 1960	80%
Air Force	Personnel discharged September 25, 1947 to January 1, 1964 (with names alphabetically after Hubbard, James E.)	75%

Less Than Honorable Discharges and Eligibility

The type of discharge you received, the length of service, and even when you served can have an impact on your benefits. Regardless if your character of discharge was not HONORABLE, you can still request benefits and you might be eligible for limited services. Unfortunately, it is difficult to know the extent of the benefits available until a claim for services is requested.

You can request to have your character of discharge reviewed for an increase. If a General Discharge is upgraded to an HONORABLE discharge, it would subsequently increase your available services or benefits that you are eligible to receive. You only have 15 years from the date of your separation to request an upgrade in your discharge character. After 15 years, you can only request a 'Correction of the Records.'

Like many applications for benefits and services, a Veterans Service Organization (VSO) may help with completing needed paperwork and it is STRONGLY recommended you seek help before pursuing these actions. These requests must be filed on specific Department of Defense forms and they are not provided for you in this booklet.

A Correction of Military Records is completed after 15 years from you discharge and is much more difficult to obtain. Please consult a VSO for more information on this process before attempting to complete the paperwork yourself. You only receive ONE review on this process, therefore, it should be completed correctly and with all needed information to support your request.

This is a military review and is not completed by the U.S. Department of Veteran Affairs. The VA does not complete this review and sending your request to the Department of Veteran Affairs, will only delay your review. The address where these are processed are on the instruction pages of the needed forms.*

Incarcerated Veterans

Veterans incarcerated and incarcerated dependents may apply for the same compensation, dependency and indemnity compensation (DIC) – service connected death benefits – and pension benefits as Veterans who are not incarcerated. However, Congress restricts the amount of benefits that may be paid to a veteran or dependent while he or she is incarcerated. These benefits are institutionalized as part of law: 38 U.S.C Sec 5313 (a), 38 C.F.R., Sec. 3.665 (a), (d).

“VA benefits are affected if a beneficiary is convicted of a felony and imprisoned for more than 60 days. Disability or death pension paid to an incarcerated beneficiary must be discontinued. Disability compensation paid to an incarcerated Veteran rated 20 percent or more disabled is limited to the 10 percent rate. For a Veteran whose disability rating is 10 percent, the payment is reduced to half of the rate payable to a Veteran evaluated as 10 percent disabled.

Any amounts not paid may be apportioned to eligible dependents. Payments are not reduced for participants in work-release programs, residing in halfway houses or under community control.

Failure to notify VA of a Veteran's incarceration can result in overpayment of benefits and the subsequent loss of all VA financial benefits until the overpayment is recovered. VA benefits will not be provided to any Veteran or dependent wanted for an outstanding felony warrant.”

 Taken from the Federal Benefits for Veterans and Dependents, 2012 edition, Special Groups of Veterans, Chapter 9.*

For example: Joe is a Veteran who receives a VA pension. He commits a crime, is convicted, and is incarcerated, but doesn't tell the VA right away and keeps getting paid for 6 months. After serving his sentence of 18 months, he is released and applies to the VA to have his pension restarted. He will have an overpayment which must be recovered from the restarted benefits. Until the overpayment is recovered, Joe will have to go without that income.

Your award for compensation or pension benefits should resume from the date you are released, as long as the VA receives notice of release within one year. Form 21-4193, Notice to Department of Veterans Affairs of Veteran or Beneficiary Incarcerated in Penal Institution, should be completed before release, signed by a prison official and submitted to VA Benefits Administration. A copy of this form is provided in the appendix.

To avoid overpayment of benefits and preserve your benefits in full for when you release from incarceration, it is VERY important you notify the VA. If you do not have Form 21-4193, then you should mail a letter to the VA Regional Office (VARO) in your State of Residence. See page 11 for a listing of some of the VARO offices in the Southeast.

Apportionment

All or part of the compensation not paid to an incarcerated Veteran may be apportioned to the Veteran's spouse, child or children, and dependent parents on the basis of individual need. In determining individual need, consideration shall be given to such factors as the claimant's income and living expenses, the amount of compensation available to be apportioned, the needs and living expenses of other claimants as well as any special needs, if any, of all claimants.

Additional Information:

- VA will inform a Veteran whose benefits are subject to reduction of the right of the Veteran's dependents to an apportionment while the Veteran is incarcerated, and the conditions under which payments to the Veteran may be resumed upon release from incarceration.
- VA will also notify the dependents of their right to an apportionment if the VA is aware of their existence and can obtain their addresses.
- No apportionment may be made to or on behalf of any person who is incarcerated in a Federal, State, or local penal institution for conviction of a felony.
- An apportionment of an incarcerated Veteran's VA benefits is not granted automatically to the Veteran's dependents. The dependent(s) must file a claim for an apportionment.

(<http://www.va.gov/opa/persona/veteran-incarcerated.asp>)

Pension

Veterans in receipt of VA pension will have payments terminated effective the 61st day after imprisonment in a Federal, State, or local penal institution for conviction of a felony or misdemeanor. Payments may be resumed upon release from prison if the Veteran meets VA eligibility requirements. Failure to notify VA of a Veteran's incarceration could result in the loss of all financial benefits until the overpayment is recovered. (<http://www.va.gov/opa/persona/veteran-incarcerated.asp>)

Healthcare

Incarcerated Veterans do not forfeit their eligibility for medical care; however, current regulations restrict VA from providing hospital and outpatient care to an incarcerated Veteran who is an inmate in an institution of another government agency when that agency has a duty to give the care or services.

VA may provide care once the veteran has been unconditionally released from the penal institution. Veterans interested in applying for enrollment into the VA health care system should contact the nearest VA health care facility upon their release. (Incarcerated Veteran Fact Sheet)

GI Bill/Education Benefits

Beneficiaries incarcerated for other than a felony can receive full monthly benefits, if otherwise entitled. Convicted felons residing in halfway houses (also known as "residential re-entry centers"), or participating in work-release programs also can receive full monthly benefits.

Claimants incarcerated for a felony conviction can be paid only the costs of tuition, fees, and necessary books, equipment, and supplies. VA cannot make payments for tuition, fees, books, equipment, or supplies if another Federal State or local program pays these costs in full.

If another government program pays only a part of the cost of tuition, fees, books, equipment, or supplies, VA can authorize the incarcerated claimant payment for the remaining part of the costs. The Department of Veterans Affairs publishes a booklet called "Federal Benefits for Veterans and Their Dependents" that describes the types of benefits available and lists the addresses and phone numbers for VA facilities nationwide. Write the VA Regional Office (VARO) to request a copy at: 110 Ninth Avenue South, Nashville, TN 37203-3817, Toll-free: 1-800-827-1000.

Overpayment of Benefits during Incarceration

There is a 60-day "grace period" following conviction where the veteran, or Dependency or Indemnity Compensation (DIC) recipient, may still receive full benefits. If the Veteran continues to receive benefits after the 60-day period, it will result in an "overpayment". The VA considers it to be the recipient's responsibility and fault if this occurs because the recipient failed to notify the VA of his or her incarceration. Attempts to obtain a waiver in these situations of overpayment are often unsuccessful. As a rule, the veteran loses most, if not all, financial benefits until the VA recovers the entire overpayment. It has also been a standard procedure that the family will not be entitled to receive an apportionment until the debt is completely recovered.

One other relevant restriction on veteran's incarcerated eligibility for service connected disability compensation is that: "No total disability rating based on unemployability, may be assigned to an incarcerated Veteran." It is important to remember that most VA decisions, including those on apportionment, can be appealed to the Board of Veterans Appeals and, if need be, to the Court of Appeal for Veterans Affairs.

FAQ on Overpayments

http://www.va.gov/debtman/Frequently_Asked_Questions.asp#FAQ2

What steps do I need to take to request a waiver of my debt? Is there a specific form I need to use to do so?

To request a waiver, you need to state, in writing, that you want to request "waiver of collection" (use those exact words) and the reasons you feel you should not be held liable for the debt. You should explain the circumstances leading to the overpayment and the steps you took to prevent the overpayment from occurring. You should also complete and return the Financial Status Report* that was enclosed with your notification letter.

Is it possible to make payments on my debt, or set up partial withholding from my benefits in order to repay this debt?

Monthly payments or withholdings from benefits can be accepted if they will clear the debt in a reasonable timeframe. If your proposed repayment plan will take longer than a year to repay your debt, you need to complete and return the Financial Status Report, which was enclosed with your notification letter.

A copy of the Financial Status Report form is located in the appendix.*

Submit this form along with your proposed repayment plan by mail or fax to:

U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs
Debt Management Center
P.O. Box 11930
St. Paul, MN 55111
1-612-970-5688 (fax)

We will notify you if your plan is acceptable, and when the withholding will start, or when you should begin making your payments.

I don't understand how I was overpaid. Can you send me an audit of my account?

You can call our toll-free number 1-800-827-0648, or for international callers, 1-612-713-6415 and explain to the operator that you would like an audit for your overpayment. The audit will also include your repayment options.

Filing Veteran Benefits Claims:

If you would like to get benefits or think you have a pending claim before the VA, it is best to get professional help to assist you.

Many Veterans Service Organizations (VSO) have trained staff who can help you with your VA claim and can represent your claim before the VA. You can contact any VSO listed below to see if there is a service representative near you.

Veteran Service Organizations*

- The American Legion 1-800-433-3318
- American Red Cross 1-877-272-7337
- Disabled American Veterans 1-877-426-2838 or (859) 441-7300

Although we encourage you to seek the aid of a service representative, you may choose to apply for VA benefits on your own. You can call 1-800-827-1000 for more information or write the VA Regional Office in the state which you reside:

How to File a VA Claim

If you believe that you have been harmed in any way through your military experience, you have the right to file a claim for treatment and compensation with the Department of Veterans Affairs (VA). You should consider seeking services from a Veterans Service Organization. They are not lawyers and do not charge for their services, yet they can represent you in your claim to the VA. A short list was provided above. You can submit your claim to any VA Regional Office (VARO) on VA Form 21-256. It can also be done by mail, after requesting the appropriate forms from the VA. Assistance of a VSO is encouraged, when possible.

All major Veterans' organizations (American Legion, VFW, AMVETS, DAV, etc...) have service officers authorized by the VA. Many state and county government agencies have VSO's. There is never a charge for the assistance of VSO.

It is the responsibility of claimant to keep their contact information current. It may be a good idea to inform the VA you are incarcerated and request the exam during your incarceration. Compensation and pension exams may require additional planning and coordination for those Veterans incarcerated. Below is a copy of the most current policy information for Examinations for Incarcerated Veterans.

Examinations for Incarcerated Veterans

PURPOSE

This Fact Sheet provides guidance regarding examinations for incarcerated Veterans.

POLICY

1. Duty to Assist

VA's duty to assist incarcerated Veterans includes providing them with VA examinations when warranted. Court decisions reflect VA's duty to assist includes the duty to provide a medical examination to an incarcerated Veteran when one is required. Further, as stated in VHA Handbook 1601E.01, Compensation and Pension (C&P) Examinations, October 13, 2009, Corrected Copy February 25, 2010, at paragraph 5.b.(1) VHA must provide an examination, when necessary, under the duty to assist provisions of 38 U.S.C. Section 5103A and 38 CFR 3.159 equally to incarcerated Veterans as to non-incarcerated Veterans vaww1.va.gov/vhapublications/ViewPublication.asp?pub_ID=2094.

VA must fully comply with the duty to assist by obtaining relevant medical records from the facility where an incarcerated Veteran is held, and work with state or prison officials both in obtaining such records and in providing medical examinations when warranted. VA, through its General Counsel, has indicated that it is fully aware of this responsibility and will concede that the Board of Veterans Appeals may remand for such an examination where the record does not contain evidence of substantial efforts to conduct such examination, including identifying and requesting the assistance of the appropriate state or prison official.

VA is required to provide medical examinations when warranted under the duty to assist, either by arranging for release of an incarcerated Veteran to attend an examination or by making arrangements with the relevant state or prison official to conduct an examination at the facility where the Veteran is incarcerated. Incarcerated Veterans are owed the same duty to assist as non-incarcerated Veterans and VA should tailor its assistance to the circumstances of the confinement of these Veterans. As long as there is evidence of substantial efforts to conduct the C&P examination, the claim will not be returned as a remand, and VHA has supported the claim to the fullest extent possible. An example of a substantial effort is: the C&P clinic documents that they have made multiple attempts and exhausted all possible avenues for obtaining access to the incarcerated Veteran for the examination.

If you would like to pursue filing a claim yourself, and without the aid of a VSO, below are brief descriptions of some forms needed to file for certain VA benefits. Make photocopies of all forms for your records before sending your packet to the VARO nearest you. These forms are not included in the guidebook, but can be requested with a letter to the VARO closest to you (see page 11), or by downloading them from the web.

- VA Form 21-526 - Application for Compensation or Pension- must be filed to apply for compensation -or pension. Mail your DD-214 and the following forms to the VARO nearest your release destination.
- VA Form 21-4138 - Statement in Support of Claim - lets you explain why you deserve the benefits you are asking for because of your disability or disorder. It is best to have an experienced service representative help you complete the form.
- VA Form 70-3288 - Request for and Consent to Release of Information from Claimant's Records - is used to get records relevant to your claim from VA facilities (regional offices, medical centers, outpatient clinics, and vet centers). Request a fee waiver under section 38 C.F.R. Sec.1.526 (h), which requires the VARO to provide a veteran with one set of his or her records free of charge. If you have never had medical treatment at a Veterans Medical Center, then this form would not be needed. VA facilities are NOT associated with military treatment facilities and the VA hospital would not have your military medical records.

WOMEN VETERANS

- Most VA Medical Centers and readjustment offices have a designated Women Veterans Coordinator to assist women veterans in accessing VA benefit programs and healthcare services. Call 1-877-222-8387.
- Women Veteran Hotline responds to question about women Veterans and their available benefits and services and resources. It is aimed at increasing women Veterans' knowledge of VA services . 1-855 VA WOMAN or 1-855-829-6636.
- The Center for Women Veterans, 810 Vermont Ave., NW, Washington, DC 20420, 1-800-827-1000, <http://www1.va.gov/womenvet/>
- Many women in prison had similar histories, problems, and personal issues before their arrest and conviction. Mentors with Women in Community Service (WICS) help women preparing to leave prison and those who are just getting back into society. WICS' prison programs help women think about their behavior, gain job skills, and build self-esteem. Contact the U.S. DOL, Job Corps at 1-800-283-9427 or go to www.wics.org to find the nearest WICS program.

Getting Employment

Preparing for your Job Search

Regardless of the skill level of the job you seek, a resume is a powerful and useful tool in the search for job. Any resume you can prepare BEFORE you release from incarceration, will enable you to be that much closer to securing employment when you are released.

Even if the job you are applying for does not ask for a resume, the document can still be a good tool to help complete applications. If an employer tells you to "leave your name and number at the front desk," the resume is your 'calling card' and works much better than a scratch sheet of paper or a 'yellow-sticky note' with your name written on it. A basic resume can help you remember:

- Education information
 - Certifications (Certified Electrician, Certified Diesel Mechanic, etc...)
- Work history (You should cover not less than 5 years of employment history)
- Special skills
 - (driving fork-lifts, typing skills, language skills, computer skills)
- Veteran service dates

Talk to your Reentry Specialist at your correctional facility to see samples of resume styles and options. Also discuss the disclosure of criminal history and how it can be handled, either in a resume or at a job interview. There is no one right answer to this disclosure, so it is best your reentry class discuss this topic and the different ways to approach it.

Veteran Employment Preferences

Some Veterans have Veteran preferences to some jobs and once you release, you will have all your Federal Veteran benefits available again. Many benefits can begin even while you are in a work release program or halfway house, to include your Veteran employment preferences.

By law, veterans who are disabled or who served on active duty in the Armed Forces during certain specified time periods or in military campaigns are entitled to preference over non veterans both in hiring from competitive lists of eligibles and in retention during reductions in force.

The goal of the Veteran's Preference is not to place a veteran in every vacant Federal job. However, preference does provide a uniform method by which special consideration is given to qualified veterans seeking Federal employment.

Preference applies in hiring from civil service examinations, for most excepted service jobs, and when agencies make temporary appointments or use direct hire and delegated examining authorities from the U. S. Office of Personnel Management.

General Requirements for Preference

To be entitled to preference, a veteran must meet the eligibility requirements in section 2108 of title 5, United States Code. This means that:

- An honorable or general discharge is necessary.
- Military retirees at the rank of major, lieutenant commander, or higher are not eligible for preference unless they are disabled veterans.
- Guard and Reserve active duty for training purposes does not qualify for preference.
- When applying for Federal jobs, eligible veterans should claim preference on their application or resume. Applicants claiming 10-point preference must complete form SF-15, Application for 10-Point Veteran Preference.

Types of Preference

5-Point Preference

Five points are added to the passing examination score or rating of a veteran who served:

- During a war; or

- During the period April 28, 1952 through July 1, 1955; or
- For more than 180 consecutive days, other than for training, any part of which occurred after January 31, 1955, and before October 15, 1976; or
- During the Gulf War from August 2, 1990, through January 2, 1992; or
- For more than 180 consecutive days, other than for training, any part of which occurred during the period beginning September 11, 2001, and ending on the date prescribed by Presidential proclamation or by law as the last day of Operation Iraqi Freedom; or
- In a campaign or expedition for which a campaign medal has been authorized. Any Armed Forces Expeditionary medal or campaign badge, including El Salvador, Lebanon, Grenada, Panama, Southwest Asia, Somalia, and Haiti, qualifies for preference.

A campaign medal holder or Gulf War veteran who originally enlisted after September 7, 1980, (or began active duty on or after October 14, 1982, and has not previously completed 24 months of continuous active duty) must have served continuously for 24 months or the full period called or ordered to active duty. The 24-month service requirement does not apply to 10-point preference eligibles separated for disability incurred or aggravated in the line of duty, or to veterans separated for hardship or other reasons under 10 U.S.C. 1171 or 1173.

10-Point Preference

Ten points are added to the passing examination score of:

- A veteran who served any time and who (1) has a present service-connected disability or (2) is receiving compensation, disability retirement benefits, or pension from the military or the Department of Veterans Affairs. Individuals who received a Purple Heart qualify as disabled veterans.
- An unmarried spouse of certain deceased veterans, a spouse of a veteran unable to work because of a service-connected disability, and
- A mother of a veteran who died in service or who is permanently and totally disabled.

How it Works

If you meet the criteria for preference and achieve a score of 70 or higher either by a written examination or an evaluation of your experience and education, you will have 5 or 10 points added to your numerical ratings depending on the nature of their preference. For scientific and professional positions in grade GS-9 or higher, names of all eligibles are listed in order of ratings, augmented by veteran preference, if any. For all other positions, the names of 10-point preference eligibles who have a compensable, service-connected disability of 10 percent or more are placed ahead of the names of all other eligibles on a given register. The names of other 10-point preference eligibles, 5-point preference eligibles, and non-veterans are listed in order of their numerical ratings.

Entitlement to veterans' preference does not guarantee a job. There are many ways an agency can fill a vacancy other than by appointment from a list of eligibles.

Filing Applications After Examinations Have Closed

A 10-point preference eligible may file an application at any time for any positions for which a non-temporary appointment has been made from a competitive list of eligibles within the past 3 years.

In addition, a person who is unable to file for an open competitive examination because of military service may file after the closing date. In either of the above situations, the veteran should contact the agency that announced the position for further information. In addition certain examinations are open only to preference eligibles as long as such applicants are available. These are custodian, guard, elevator operator and messenger.

Veterans Recruitment Appointment (VRA)

Under the VRA, a you can be appointed to a white –collar position through GS 11 without having to compete with other applicants.

The VRA is open to you if you are a disabled veteran who served on active duty during a war or major campaign and you have left the service under honorable conditions within three years.

* Through its Veterans Industries and Compensated Work Therapy Programs, the VA offers structured work opportunities and supervised therapeutic housing for at-risk and homeless veterans with physical, mental health and addictions problems. VA contracts with private industry and the public sector for work for Veterans, who learn job skills, practice successful work habits, and regain a sense of self-esteem. Veterans are paid for their work and given assistance with employment in the community.

* Most states have a Vocational Rehabilitation program that helps people with disabilities find and keep jobs. If you are disabled, apply for these services immediately after your release. Look in the phone book blue pages under "Department of Social and Health Services (DSHS)," then "Vocational Rehabilitation," or search the internet for "Vocational Rehabilitation" in your state.

Housing

The goal of the HCRV Specialist is to provide you resources and support, yet we are unable to impact the decision of the parole and probation boards with any guaranteed housing acceptance. Once you release from custody, you may apply for any and all applicable housing programs the VA has, but it is not usually an option for direct placement from incarceration.

Once released, the VA does have the following supportive housing programs in our Homeless Clinics that may be of use to you as you re-acclimate to the community:

Grant Per Diem (GPD)

The mission of GPD is to establish transitional housing and supportive services to homeless Veterans. Residential stability is a goal of this program and the programs are 'recovery' based, yet you can apply even if you do not have a substance abuse problem.

- How to Apply for GPD: You must complete an eligibility screening and this can be accomplished at a VA Hospital Homeless Clinic office or at a VA Community Based Outpatient Clinic, if there is an assigned Homeless Clinic staff member.

Housing and Urban Development - VA Supportive Housing (HUD/VASH)

HUD/VASH is not an emergency based housing program and it can take 1-6 weeks from initial contact until the Veteran is able to move into a rental property. The public housing authority issues vouchers for Veterans to obtain their own apartment. The program does have requirements and eligibility for each participant and not all of those requirements can be listed in this guidebook. The Veteran's rent payments are adjusted to meet their ability to make payments. Information on eligibility is listed below:

- Must meet the McKinney-Vento Act definition of homelessness
- Meet income requirements (must have an income)
- Veteran, nor any family members that reside with them may be on lifetime Sex Offender Registry
- Vouchers must be available
- Must agree to case management services
- How to apply for a HUD/VASH Voucher: The Veteran should apply at the VA Hospital nearest them with the Homeless Clinic. If you are closest to a VA Community Clinic, you may apply with them, but only if there is a homeless clinic HUD/VASH social worker available at that location.

Other Homeless and Housing Resources

It is important to know that you have a place to go when released. The first step in returning to the community is finding a place to stay. This section includes ways to locate emergency shelter, transitional programs, and permanent housing assistance. Transitional or temporary housing can serve as a step toward full independence upon your release. However, there are often waiting lists for housing assistance programs, so you should ask about applying as soon as possible. If you are released and find yourself homeless, emergency assistance is available state-wide.

Social Security Benefits

What happens to my benefits when I am in prison?

<http://www.ssa.gov/pubs/10133.html#a0=5>

If you are receiving Social Security, your benefits will be suspended if you are admitted for more than 30 continuous days to a jail or prison because you were convicted of a criminal offense. Your benefits can be reinstated starting with the month following the month you are released.

Although you cannot receive monthly Social Security benefits while you are confined, benefits to your spouse or children will continue as long as they remain eligible.

If you are receiving SSI, your payments are suspended while you are in prison. Your payments can be reinstated in the month you are released. However, if your confinement lasts for 12 consecutive months or longer, your eligibility for SSI benefits will terminate and you must file a new application for benefits.

Social Security and Supplemental Security Income (SSI) payments generally are not payable for months that you are confined to a jail, prison or certain other public institutions for commission of a crime. You are not automatically eligible for Social Security or SSI payments when you are released.

How do I file an application if I am in prison?

<http://www.ssa.gov/pubs/10133.html#a0=5>

After you know your release date, notify someone at your facility that you want to start your Social Security or SSI benefits. If your institution has a prerelease agreement with the local Social Security office, it will notify us if you are likely to meet the requirements for SSI or Social Security benefits. We will obtain an application from you several months before your anticipated release. That way, we can begin processing your application and your benefits can start as soon as possible after your release.

If you are filing for benefits based on disability, we will gather medical evidence from your doctors to help us decide whether you are disabled under our rules.

Family members or a social worker can help you by contacting Social Security to let us know of your upcoming release. A family member also may be willing to serve as your representative payee if your medical condition prevents you from handling your own finances.

If there is no prerelease agreement, when you know your anticipated release date, contact Social Security to apply for benefits if you think you may be eligible.

You can call us toll- free at 1-800-772-1213 and tell the representative that you are scheduled to be released from a correctional facility and want to ask about receiving benefits. Please have your Social Security number handy when you contact us. We will set up an appointment with your local Social Security office to take your application after you are released.

REENTRY MYTH

BUSTER!

On Social Security Benefits

A Product of the Federal Interagency Reentry Council

MYTH: Eligibility for Social Security benefits cannot be reinstated when an individual is released from incarceration.

FACT: Social Security benefits are not payable if an individual is convicted of a criminal offense and confined. However, monthly benefits usually can be reinstated after a period of incarceration by contacting Social Security and providing proof of release.

By law, Social Security benefits are not payable to an individual who is convicted of a criminal offense and confined for more than 30 consecutive days. If an individual was getting Social Security benefits prior to confinement, benefits are suspended until he or she is released. Generally, there is no time limit on the period of suspension.

Upon release, benefits can be reinstated without filing a new claim. The individual must request reinstatement and provide proof of release to a Social Security office. Upon provision of the necessary proof, the Social Security office will reinstate benefits quickly.

Social Security cannot reinstate benefits after release if the individual was not receiving benefits before confinement. Instead, the individual must file a claim and be approved before benefits can be paid. For these individuals, Social Security offers a prerelease application procedure, which enables a claim to be filed several months before the scheduled release date. This process allows benefits to start shortly after the individual is released.

Social Security also administers the Supplemental Security Income (SSI) program for aged or disabled individuals who have limited income and resources. SSI benefits are suspended if the individual is incarcerated for a full calendar month or more. If the incarceration is 12 months or less, Social Security can reinstate SSI benefits quickly upon release. For incarceration periods greater than 12 months, SSI eligibility is terminated and a new claim must be filed to reestablish eligibility. The prerelease application procedure expedites the provision of SSI benefits after the individual is released.

Entering the Community after Incarceration – How We Can Help

<http://ssa.gov/pubs/10604.htm#prerelease>

What is a REENTRY MYTH BUSTER?

This Myth Buster is one in a series of fact sheets intended to clarify existing federal policies that affect formerly incarcerated individuals and their families. Each year, more than 700,000 individuals are released from state and federal prisons. Another 9 million cycle through local jails. When reentry fails, the social and economic costs are high – more crime, more victims, more family distress, and more pressure on already-strained state and municipal budgets.

Because reentry intersects with health and housing, education and employment, family, faith, and community well-being, many federal agencies are focusing on initiatives for the reentry population. Under the auspices of the Cabinet-level interagency Reentry Council, federal agencies are working together to enhance community safety and well-being, assist those returning from prison and jail in becoming productive citizens, and save taxpayer dollars by lowering the direct and collateral costs of incarceration.

Restoring SSI and SSDI Benefits After Being Released from Prison

<http://www.ssdanswers.com/2010/03/05/ssi-and-ssdi-during-and-after-incarceration/>

Although an individual may lose his/her benefits during the time of incarceration, benefits can be restored as soon as the individual is released from prison. The procedures for having disability payments reinstated differ slightly according to the type of benefit that an individual was receiving prior to his/her confinement.

Restoring SSI

Depending on the length that an individual expects to be confined, he/she may be able to begin a "pre-release procedure" while still incarcerated. This is completed through a "Pre-Release Agreement" between the jail and the SSA and applies to inmates that have been or expect to be incarcerated for a period of less than one year. Although felony sentences by law carry a prison sentence of more than one year, it is possible that a defendant could be given credit for any time he/she has already served while awaiting trial and/or disposition in their case. An example of a hypothetical situation is as follows:

"John," a SSI recipient of five years, is convicted on felony theft, which in the state of Georgia is theft of property in excess of $500.00 and is punishable by a possible term of imprisonment of 1-10 years. John was unable to afford bond and as a result spent six months in jail awaiting trial and/or disposition in his matter. John subsequently entered a guilty plea and was sentenced to 15 months in the state penitentiary. At his discretion, the sentencing judge gave John credit for the time he had already served, meaning that John only had nine months remaining. In this particular case, John was able to start the paperwork necessary to reinstate his benefits while incarcerated. Since John was proactive, it is likely that his benefits will start immediately following his release. If John has chosen to wait until his release to start the reinstatement of his benefits, again he would have received payment for any day that he was eligible, but the probability of his checks being delayed would have significantly increased.

Since any SSI award is based on the recipient's income, individuals presently confined need to know what his/her income will be upon release and what resources he/she will have available. In addition, the SSA will need to know what other persons, if any, will be residing with the defendant following their release. On the day a disability claimant is released from confinement, they are encouraged to go directly to their Social Security office with personal identification and proof of their release.

Restoring SSDI

If an individual is receiving SSDI at the time of his/her incarceration, he/she will remain on the rolls during their jail or prison term, regardless of the length of their sentence. Like with SSI, SSDI payments will stop when a claimant is incarcerated and recipients will need to request reinstatement of their benefits when the time comes to be released from prison.

Although there is no pre-release procedure for SSDI as there is for SSI, jails or prisons that have Pre-Release Agreements for SSI can also use the same form to help SSDI recipients get the reinstatement process started. Those inmates unable to obtain a Pre-Release Agreement form should inquire as to whether the prison staff knows how SSDI payments can be restarted upon their release. If all else fails, incarcerated individuals should seek the assistance of their family members who can contact their local Social Security office for more information. In addition, the Social Security's website, <http://www.ssa.gov/disability/> contains a wealth of useful information.

In closing, it is against the law for any person convicted of a felony and sentenced to a term of imprisonment to continue to receive social security disability benefits during their period of incarceration. Likewise, it is illegal for someone other than the intended recipient to cash a disability check in the name of another person, specifically under the disguise of the individual in prison.

Medicare

Your eligibility for Medicare Part A (hospital insurance) continues uninterrupted while you are in prison. But Part B Medicare (medical insurance) will terminate if you do not pay your monthly premiums while you are in prison. To start Part B Medicare, you will need to file an application with us during a general enrollment period, which is January through March of each year. If you file during this enrollment period, your Part B eligibility will begin on July 1 of that year. If your Medicaid eligibility was terminated while you were in prison, you will need to contact your local social services office to apply for Medicaid coverage. We can provide a referral form for you to take to the social services office.

Other Financial Resources

The American Legion provides Temporary Financial Assistance, (TFA) from its national headquarters to help maintain a stable environment for children of Veterans. To obtain an application, look in the phone book to contact a local post, or contact the National Headquarters to find the post nearest you.

Food Stamps If you are unemployed with little or no income, you may be able to get food stamps. A person may normally qualify for $85 to $100 worth of food stamps per month. Call the toll-free information number at 1-800-221-5689, or find a list of food stamp hotlines for each state at www.fns.usda.gov/fsp/contact_info/hotlines.htm. You can also contact the local Department of Human Services, many drop-in shelters, or legal aid services to ask for an application.

Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA) has a program called Emergency Food and Shelter Program to help prevent homelessness. Contact the local Office of the Mayor or United Way to ask who awards this money in your area and what the rules are.

Legal Help

Most law is state-specific. Most common legal problems are governed by the law in the state where you live or where the problem occurred. When looking for legal help, make sure that information you find applies to your state, or that the lawyer or other service provider is qualified to work in your state.

The American Bar Association has a web site with guidelines about free legal services and links to directories of legal aid offices and pro-bono programs. Go to: www.abanet.org.

Legal Services or Legal Aid Offices have staff lawyers to provide free legal help to poor clients. The lawyers are usually experts in the types of problems that poor clients often have. Look in the yellow pages for a local Legal Aid Office or check online for the program, nearest you.

Pine Tree legal Assistance has an online list of organizations across the nation that provides free legal help to clients who qualify. Go to www.ptla.org/links/services.htm.
